Re: Schilling

Dear Patrick:

It was a pleasure meeting Inspector Buonaiuto and you in Boston last week and I hope you found your meeting with Mr. Schilling to be informative. Hopefully, you will not have a need for any further involvement on the part of Mr. Schilling. As we discussed, while the State does not seem to think so, Mr. Schilling has been enough of a victim in this mess.

Sincerely yours,

Edward J. Hayes

First month is kind of a weird schedule but depending on how long it will take we can manage something. I have zero desire to go back to that place. Never thought an ounce of what I had heard was true until I actually tried to run a business there, then was blown away by the fact that almost everything I was told was in fact true.

I received your message and will check with Curt regarding his schedule now that the baseball season has begun and he is back to work full time. How long to you envision the meeting to take?

As to an appearance in Rhode Island, we will have to discuss that as I do not see Curt having any desire to return to the State.

Hi Ed,

Thanks for getting back to me so soon.

The meeting would be with Detective Buonafuto and myself and would not take any longer than a few hours. As mentioned before, we could go to Boston or Bristol or anywhere else to meet. It would not have to be in Rhode Island.

I received your message and will check with Curt regarding his schedule now that the baseball season has begun and he is back to work full time. How long to you envision the meeting to take?

As to an appearance in Rhode Island, we will have to discuss that as I do not see Curt having any desire to return to the State.

Hello again Ed,

Sorry it took so long to get back to you, I have been embroiled in a murder case that stretched from January until last week but am back at work on all my other cases and investigations.

[REDACTED]

Please let me know if there is a way we can accomplish that without too much inconvenience to you and your client.

Thanks.

Hi Mike,

Our investigation has progressed and Detective Buonaluto and I remain very interested in speaking with your client, Thomas Zaccagnino. If he is still open to speaking with us we would like to accomplish that in the near future. If there is a convenient date, time, and place for you and your client to meet with us we would make every effort to accommodate that.

Patrick,

As we discussed, please send me a copy of your draft proposed letter for review. My contact information is below. I understand that Corporal Buonaiuto is not available next week and, as we discussed, Mr. Zaccagnino will be unavailable from July 3rd through the 18th. We can discuss another tentative date when we talk next. Please let me know if you have any questions. Thank you.

Hi Ed,

Meeting in Boston is fine. The earliest we could meet would be the week of July 7th. Any day that week, other than the 9th, is flexible for us. The same is true for the following week other than the 16th.

Hi David,

Sorry I did not get back to you sooner. Detective Buonaluto of the RISP just got back to me this morning that 6/27 is not good for him. He has a family obligation that could not be moved. He is also away the following week, so I would be looking to meet the week of 7/7. Once again sorry for the late response and I looking forward to meeting with you and Mr. Stokes.
